BORMIO MEN'S DH – SECOND OFFICIAL TRAINING

After this morning's official DH training and the domination of the "Azzurri" Fill and Innerhofer, the second official training will take place tomorrow morning on the Stelvio in Bormio at 11.45am. According to the weather forecasts heavy snowfalls are coming to Bormio. The staff is ready to clear the pist but - in any case - should the training be cancelled, the DH race will regularly take place on Thursday 28 at 11.45am. The next day will be Alpine Combined time (DH at 11am, slalom at 3pm).

In the meanwhile, good news from the hospital in Sondalo where two of the three athletes who fell this morning were admitted during the first official training. The Austrian Johannes Kroll, who arrived at the finish line with his skis, asked the doctors to be taken directly to his hotel. The young "Azzurro" Matteo De Vettori, who fell just after La Rocca jump, was released tonight after negative feedbacks. The Chilean Henrik Von Appen was instead hospitalized. The doctors found no fractures, but a deep wound in the left forearm with vascular problems that could require surgery.
